WHATIF

- There are times when fears and doubts fill our minds and we begin to think whatif something unpleasant happens. The poet has written this poem about it.
- Last night I lay in bed thinking. I wondered what would happen if I am dumb in school ? Whatif they don't let me enter the swimming pool and beat me ?
- If someone puts poison in my cup. Who knows I might start crying, get sick and die. ? Am I going to fail the test ?
- . I may grow green hair on my chest and am disliked by all. I may be a victim of lightning.
- I may not grow taller and in stead begin to grow smaller. The wind may tear my kite.

- if a bolt of lightning struck on me , if I did not grow taller, if my head started getting smaller, if the fish would not bite, if the wind tore up my kite, if they started a war, if my parents got divorced, if the bus was late, if my teeth did not grow in straight, if I never learnt to dance.

- Thank you
