

Atomic Energy Education Society

Class/Sec: IV / _____

Subject: EVS

Date: _____

Name of the Student: _____ Roll no.: _____

Worksheet based on Chapter 4: The Story of AmritaI. Fill in the gaps.

(Type of question- 1 Mark Questions)

1. Khejadli village is near _____ in Rajasthan.
2. Khejadli village got its name because of many _____ trees that grew there.
3. Amrita would get up early every morning and greet her friends – the _____.
4. She would choose a special _____ for the day.
5. There are _____ against hunting.
6. Khejadi trees are mostly found in _____ areas.
7. Its bark is used for making _____.
8. Bishnois still continue to protect _____.
9. The _____ tree was the most common tree that grew in Amrita's village.
10. _____ is a common tree that grows around my school.

II. Give reasons for the following.

(Type of question- 2 Mark Questions)

1. Plants and animals can survive without us, but we can not survive without them.

Ans. _____

2. People hunt animals.

Ans. _____

III. Answer the following questions.

(Type of question- 2 Mark Questions)

1. What did Amrita do to save the trees?

Ans. _____

2. Name any two places where grass, small plants or trees grow on their own without being planted by anyone.

Ans. _____

3. How did Khejadli village get its name?

Ans. _____

IV. Answer the following questions.

(Type of question- 5 Mark Questions)

1. Write a short note on Khejadi trees.

Ans. _____

2. Look at the picture below and fill in the blanks.

Amrita saw that some strangers in her village had _____ in their hands. They said that the _____ had sent them to cut _____ for _____.

Amrita and her daughters _____ to save the trees.